FOXRIDGE CIVIC ASSOCIATION GENERAL MEETING January 23, 2013

The January General meeting of the Foxridge Civic Association was called to order by Shon Prescott at 7:03 pm at St. Giles Presbyterian Church.

Present were:

Shon Prescott, President
Jim Warfuel, Vice President
Bill Poremba, Treasurer
Judy Snyder, Secretary
Sharon Warfuel, Block Rep Coordinator
Bob McDermott, Annual Membership Coordinator
Bruce Snyder, Yard Sale Coordinator
Nancy Prescott, Neighborhood Beautification
Susan Parkins, Web Master
Jim Antonelli, Candidate for Treasurer

The treasurer gave the year-end financial report. The secretary gave an overview of yearly business including information on the number of foreclosures in the neighborhood.

The president thanked all the volunteer Board members, Coordinators and Web Master for all their hard work over the past year.

The Board members, Coordinators and Web Master introduced themselves and gave some information of their past service and how many years they have resided in the Foxridge community.

The president gave a summary of maintenance expenditures for 2012. They included: the maintenance of 100 islands, over 500 palm trees in the islands and adjacent to the street lights, entrance sign upkeep and the general beautification of the neighborhood. He stated that 100% of the collected association membership fees go to the upkeep and beautification of the neighborhood.

The president presented the Board recommendations for projects for the year 2013:

Palm Tree Maintenance (to be accomplished in sections)
Landscaping projects at all three entrance signs.
More solar lighting around signs

New Business:

The subject of illegal holiday fireworks was submitted for concern. The president stated that he would investigate the situation.

The president called for nominations and elections from the membership.

The following candidates were nominated and elected:

Shon Prescott, President
Jim Warfuel, Vice President
Jim Antonelli, Treasurer
Judy Snyder, Secretary

The meeting was turned over to Sharon Warfuel, Block Rep Coordinator who gave the presentation to the Block Reps in attendance. She passed out Block Rep packets and new name badges to all. Bob McDermott, membership coordinator, addressed the group with further information regarding the contents of the packets, methods of collecting and reporting information. The packets were distributed to the attending Block Reps.

Wayne Bolla volunteered to be the new Activities coordinator.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:05 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Judy Snyder
